

Equity Owner Compensation Systems

- The Challenge: Your equity partner compensation system is a source of friction, is not transparent, or fails to reward the full range of contributions critical to the firm's success.
- Our Approach: We are experts in designing objective, data-driven compensation systems. We guide your partners through a structured process to build a transparent and predictable framework.
- Key Deliverables: A written compensation policy, detailed financial models to test the system's impact, and rollout documents to ensure clear communication with the partnership.
